

Steve Bernstein

Author-Educator-Activist
SteveBernsteinAuthor@gmail.com

Stories From The Stoop

"I felt myself there on the streets of the Bronx, alongside young Steve; rooting for him, crying for him and sharing in his adventures..."

-Brenda, Amazon Reviewer

Skyhorse Publishing, Inc.

Purchase Here

Invite Steve to Speak:
SteveBernsteinAuthor@gmail.com

About Steve

As a kid, Steve survived the turbulent Bronx streets of the 1960s and chaos at home. Since his early twenties, Steve has been a mentor, teacher, and advocate for teens in trouble. Steve is also a humane educator and animal rights activist who shares his home in Western Massachusetts with his non-human companion, Little Bear.

Steve is available for readings, podcast interviews, and running workshops/classes.

Signature Topics

1. Equalling the playing field for disadvantaged youth.
2. The historically educational perspective of the 1960s Bronx.
3. The importance of friendships, human and animal, in creating success and resilience.
4. Growing up in a troubled family with alcoholism.

Suggested Questions

1. What can we do to equal the playing field for disadvantaged youth?
2. Why do you think you were able to thrive despite your upbringing when so many others in similar situations aren't able to?
3. How did your childhood impact your connection with, and activism for animals?